Sands Experiences Bard Luck-Travis Wine the Dyker Mondow Cup by a Good Margin from Chauser-Hamilton Captures the Consolution Trophy-Results at Other Ranks.

W. H. Sands of Westchester was a bright star for an instant at the Dyker Meadow Golf Club tournament yesterday. One streke to the good, as he stood on the home-green, would have wen for him the championship of his team. A three-feet put settled the isens.

This was in the team metch, in which the Queens County Gelf Club defaulted, leaving five teams to fight it out. Until the last stroke made by Sands the handsome prizes had been won by the home team, unless Sands beat 45 on his last round. An everplayed second shot on the third hole settled his chances. Sands, miscalculating the distances, used a brassey instead of an iron, and the ball overran into the long grass. The hele cost Sands 7, and spoiled his show of winning. This hole, the first time, by a nearly dmilar mishap, cost Sands an S. Otherwise his

S. D. Bowers caddied for Sands, and on his gwn account earlier made a fair score. J. Beeckman played for Westchester Country, but could not force their team in. The house team won finally, but only by a single streke. The Curties brothers made the best showing for the Fairfield team. The money were:

MORE ANTI-FOREIGN RIOTS.

Whitee at Shashi, on the Yangtoo Siver, He cape by Their Back Beers.

TACOMA, Wash., May 28.-Another anti-for eign riot occurred on May 9 at Shashi, 500 miles above Shanghai on the Yangtse Kiang. Hundreds of Chinese appeared before the British Consulate and began throwing rocks through the windows. The building was a fine structure occupied by the British Consul and his family and several other Europeans. It became apearest that the rioters intended milling all the Suropeans. The Consul then displayed a signal reviously agreed upon, whereupon forty Ameriman and European residents, the Consul included, escaped by the rear entrances and reached some beats moored in the river. Finding that the beats moored in the river. Finding that the heated whites had eluded them the Chinces set firs to the European buildings, after looting the stores and residences. The offices of Jardine & Matheson and Butterfield & Swire, English shipping firms, were among those burned. The mission houses of the China Inland and Swedish missions were not burned, being of native construction.

Shashi is in the Hupen Province, where the Shashi is in the Hupch Province, where the natives have objected particularly to the crection of European buildings, declaring that they tend to overthrow their established mede of living. Two British gunbeats were ordered to Shashi from Hang Kew, 100 miles down the river, and Consul Hamen sent another from Shanghai. This news is brought by the Rev. William Taylor of Shanghai, who arrived to-day from Kobe, Japan, where the news was received by cable on May 11.

The buboaic plague reached Shanghai on the steamer Bengal from Hong Kong. Fears are entertained that it may spread to Japan and America. The plague is raging at Hong Kong with increased severity, having reached the European quarter. Several Europeans have died, including two Seleters of Mercy who had been nursing plague cases in the Catholic hospital. A large number of natives are dying daily.

BOY CHASED TO HIS DEATH. Benny Levy Fell from the Boof of an Aller

Street Tenement. Benjamin Levy, 8 years old, and his brother Harry, who is 10, played tag with the neigh-bors' boys on the roof of the five-story tenement at 100 Allen street yesterday afternoon. One of the boys, of whom all that is known is that he lives in "96," two doors away, chase! little Benny over the edge of the roof. As he fell he grabbed him by the leg and held on a little while, while the boy hung a reaming head while, while the boy hung acreaming head down. But he was not strong enough to pull him back, and, feeling himself slipping toward the edge, let go his grasp. Henny tell on the stoop, flye stories below, among his playmates who crowded the sidewalk. The boy up on the roof tried to run away, but Beany's brother seized and held him until, in desperation, the boy tore himself loose.

Down in the street Nathan Popkin, who keeps a candy store in the tenement, has picked the wounded child up and carried him to Dr. Kaapp's in Broome street. The doctor saw at once that it was not a case for him, and told him to hurry to the hospital and the police. Popkin went, denouncing the physician, thinking that he refused to attood the cuild. A noticeman procured an ambulance and took Benny to Gouverneur Hospital, where he died a few hours later.

Last night the police of the Edridge street station arrested Harris Behrmann, 12 years old, of 96 Alen atreet on suspicion of having caused the boy's death. Nathan Kaplan and Harry Levy, also of 96 Alen street, were detained by the police as witnesses.

MEANS SOUGHT TO LOOSE TAN-

Tobody Can Predict the Results of the Pifth Avonue Hotel Conference—Mayor Van Wyck Holds a Conference, Too, but No Fourth Police Commissioner Is In Sight as Yet. The Republicans who want to take up the fight against Tammany Hall and make it bitter in the extreme declared yesterday that some-thing radical must be done if the Republicans are to elect their State ticket this fall and a majority of the Senators and Assemblymen, and send to Washington a great delegation of New York Congressmen committed to sound money. The drift of sentiment, it is now freely admitted by both Republicans and Democrats, favors the Republican cause, but nevertheless the Republicans do not believe that they should leave any stone unturned to make victory doubly sure, and neither do they believe that Tammany Hall should be allowed to put up jobs with no other motive in sight than to cheat at the coming

The Republicans are to have a long talk at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this evening. Not the leaders themselves could give any guess yesterder as to the results of the conference. Any steps that they are to take, either as to an extraordinary session of the Legislature or any other line of procedure, will, they said, be carefully pondered in the hope that a wise and con-servative course will block Tammany's game.

The Republicans, without doubt, for this was shown in their conversations, are apprehensive over the appointment of Devery to be Acting Chief of the police. Devery, if so minded, could make things very uncomfortable on election day. John McCullagh, as Chief of Police, kept down the great lodging-house vote in the borough of Manhattan last election. Under the law the Chief of Police must take a census of this lodging-house vote thirty days be fore election. Aivoter must be thirty days in the district, and these lodgers are very spry at changing their residences. McCullagh, in his last fall's census, ascertained that there were 26,000 voters registered from the lodging house district. He kept such strict eve upon them that on election day only 9,000 of the lodgers marched up to the polls. On its face 17,000 of these voters believed that they ran the risk of being arrested as colonizers, and remained away from the polls. All this was due to McCullagh's determination. The Republicans declare that 95 per cent. of this lodging house or colonized vote is in the strong Tammany district. They believe that they cannot expost anything like fair treatment at the hands of Devery, and they want something done which will prevent the colonizers from helping Tammany Hall.

The City Club, the City Vigilance League, the the district, and these lodgers are very spry many Hall.

The City Club, the City Vigilance League, the Citizens' Union and the Good Government clubs are all acquainted with the situation in the colonized districts during every campaign. Yet these clubs and associations are slient when Tammany grabs entire control of the police machiner.

these clubs and associations are silent when Tammany grabs entire control of the police machinery.

When the political seers and prophets of the City Hall corridors saw the long line of distinguished Tammany politicians that filed into the Mayor's office resterday, their eyes sparkled with gladness, and they declared unanimously that the appointment of a fourth Folice Commissioner to fill Mr. Philips's place would surely be announced before the day was over. What else could such a significant gathering of the high lights of the Wigwam mean, they asked, if it wasn't to urge the Mayor to play the eard which he had been keeping up his sleeve for a week. There was John F. Carroll, with his little red notebook buried deep in the secret recesses of his inside pocket. Nothing could be done in Tammany Hall without his sanction, the prophets said. Next came Bernard J. York, the Fresident of the three-leg Police Board, who, as the representative of the Kings County Democracy, would have something to say about the choice of his colleague, because the man will presumably be chosen from the ranks of the kicking Republicans of Brooklyn. Then there was Police Commissioner Sexton, commonly designated as "John the Silent," and a hoat of others. The Mayor led them into his private office and closed the door, whereupon the seers chuckled joyfully. "That settles it," they said. "When that door opens again, it will be to let the Mayor out to announce the appointment."

Two hours afterward the politicians filed out and left the building without saying a word. The Mayor led them into his private office and closed the door, whereupon the seers chuckled joyfully. "That settles it," they said. "When that door opens again, it will be to let the Mayor out to announce the appointment."

Two hours afterward the politicians filed out and left the building without saying a word. The Mayor led for the prophets began to get nervous. They fidgeted about, but the Mayor Van Wyck has not apparently selected the fourth member of the three-legged boa chinery.
When the political seers and prophets of the

the whole matter, summed up the situation last aight thus:

"I don't believe Mr. Van Wyck has been able to secure another Republican or an alleged Republican who was ready to occupy the place in the estimation of honorable folks now held by Jacob Hess. It does not appear to me that the Mayor could find another such person as Hess in all New York city. There has been talk of thousands of Republicans who could be found to do as Hess has done. The fact remains that the Mayor has not yet found a single Kepublias Hess has done. The fact remains that the Mayor has not yet found a single Kepublican who cared to be classed with Hess—the Republican who took the job and then voted immediately afterward to turn out McCullagh, a man against whom not a single charge had ever been made during all his life on the police force, a man whose integrity was unquestioned, and one who, in the prime of life and at the height of his capabilities as a police officer is turned out of office prime of life and at the height of his capabilities as a police officer, is turned out of office by Hess's vote for no other reason than to give the gamblers of New York an opportunity to run wide open and Tammany Hall the facilities to cheat the Republican organization at the coming election, which is to be fraught with such results to the Republican party in the State and nation."

GENERAL ASSEMBLY ADJOURNS. A Resolution on Presbyterian Loyalty Adopted by the Commissioners.

WINONA PARK, Ind., May 28 .- Interest in the sessions of the Presbyterian General Assembly

WINONA PARK, Ind., May 28.—Interest in the sessions of the Presbyterian General Assembly abated rapidity with the harmonious disposal of the McGiffert heresy case, and last night and to day there was an exodus of Commissioners from the grounds, nearly all the Eastern members leaving. The Assembly approved the action of the New York Presbytery in erasing the name of Dr. Briggs from its rolls, and record was made of the fact.

A resolution was adopted reiterating the loyalty of the Presbyterian Church and pledging its prayers for the success of the war. Another resolution protested against the Scoretary of Var being authorized to distinguish between church denominations. The proposed erection of a Catholic chanel at West Point gave rise to this resolution, which was adopted unanimously. The remainder of the day was taken up with routine matters and it was evident that everything was being rushed in anticipation of final adjournment to-night, which was reached at a liste bour.

It is not believed that the Assembly will ever come to Winona again, as it was beaten by Minneapolis easily for the meeting next year, and there was astrong disposition on the part of all the Commissioners to concede that a larger city presents better advantages for such a gathering than a place like this.

Fishing Schooner's Trawi Boat Disappe Strangely During a Fog.

New London, May 28. - The two-masted men haden fishing schooner James Williams, Capt. Williams, from Boston, came in here to-night and reported the loss of five men of her crew while fishing off Fisher's Island this afternoon The men lost were Harry Williams, New York: Henry P. Rhoda, Allentown, Pa.: John Morris, Boston; Thomas Gurin, Boston; Harry Miller, Long Island City. The remaining mem-bers of the crew who brought the news in and telegraphed the families of the drowned men are Capt. Williams of Boston, Harry Moore of Allentown, Pa., and Thomas Morris of Chelsea, are Capt. Williams of Boston, Harry Moore of Allentown, Pa., and Thomas Morris of Chelsea, Mass.

For three days their schooner has been fishing off Block Island. Last night they anchored about twenty miles south of Fisher's Island and this morning sent out a small boat with five men to trawl for bony fish. The men had eight grab lines with 350 books on each, batted with stale fish. For several hours they trawled within sight of the schooner, never more than half a mile away. About 3 P. M. a dense fog overspread the sea, obscuring the boat. The men on the schooner, about 3:15 o'clock, heard cries of "Help! Help!" A few minutes afterwood the fog lifted and the air was clear, but the small boat was nowhere visible. Capt. Williams weighed anchor and salled to the soint where the boat was last seen. Diligent search revealed three cars atamped with the schooner's name. One of the cars had the carlock attached.

The men scanned the horizon for miles, but could find no other trace of the boat. An easterly wind had been blowing for several days, and the sea was very rough at the time of the disaster. It was supposed that the boat was swamped just as the fog settled down.

Fell from a Car and Fractured His Skull. About midnight last night a rather stout man who was the only occupant of a south-bound open car on the Eighth avenue line, fell off the car at Morton and Hudsen streets. He was picked up unconscious and taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, where it was found that he had sustained a compound fracture of the skull and would probably die.

From papers found in his pockets he is believed to be John Murray, a plumber, of 114 West Thirty-fourth street. He had $17 in money, a gold watch and chain and several rings. Michael Judge of 150 West Fiftieth street, the conductor of the car, was arrested.
